

PETE'S 100TH SINGALONG CONCERT

May 3rd is the 100th anniversary of Pete Seeger's birth and we're having a birthday party! Come help us celebrate Pete's life-long work for a better world by singing together the songs he loved.

Sunday, May 12th, 7pm
All Souls Church, 29 South Street
West Brattleboro, VT

ABOUT THE PERFORMERS

EMMA'S REVOLUTION is the award-winning activist duo of Pat Humphries & Sandy O, whose songs have been sung for the Dalai Lama, praised by Pete Seeger and covered by Holly Near. Emma's Revolution delivers the energy and strength of their convictions, in an uprising of truth and hope for these tumultuous times. Pat was singing to Pete in his hospital room as he passed away in 2014. The duo's latest CD, Revolution Now, includes "Sing People Sing", their song that captures Pete's unique ability to empower an audience with harmony and hope.

<https://emmasrevolution.com/>

PETER SIEGEL is the founding member of the Celtic, Americana, World Beat ensemble, The Gaslight Tinkers, and contributes a radical chord to American Roots music. Influenced by the songwriting of Pete Seeger, Phil Ochs, old time, blues, Afrobeat and Caribbean, his music defies definition. You may have seen Peter at folk festivals around the country or sharing the stage with folk legends Noel Paul Stookey, Judy Collins, Dar Williams, Pete Seeger and more. Peter's songs and tunes have been published in Sing Out! magazine and the fiddle tune compilation, The Portland Collection. He has Grammy award winning mandolin tracks on the Pete Seeger's Best Children's Album of 2010.

www.petersiegel.com

SALLY ROGERS is a beloved singer, songwriter, and music educator. Her "Circle of the Sun" album was awarded as NAIRD "Best Album of the Year." She won a Parent's Choice Award for her "What Can One Little Person Do?" CD. One of the founders and leaders of the Children's Music Network, Sally accompanies herself on guitar, banjo and mountain dulcimer. The themes of her songs range from teaching children about peace to empowerment, Habitat for Humanity, and care for the earth. Her latest CD, "We Are Welcomed" with Claudia Schmidt, celebrates the empowerment of women.

<http://sallyrogers.com>

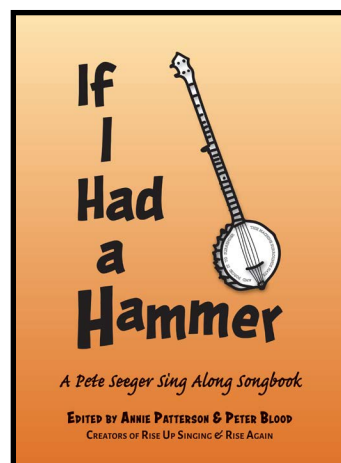

ANNIE PATTERSON & PETER BLOOD are the co-creators of the best-selling singalong songbook Rise Up Singing, which Studs Terkel called a "play-work-fight-freedom hymnal." They have led singalong concerts across North America and abroad building "hope & change through song." Patterson is well-loved for her stunning vocals, old-timey banjo playing and her harmonies with the band Girls From Mars. Blood worked closely with Seeger for over a year as the editor of his autobiography Where Have All the Flowers Gone: A Singalong Memoir.

www.riseupandsing.org

PETE 100TH CONCERT audiences will be singing from If I Had a Hammer, Patterson and Blood's newest songbook, which contains 50 of the best songs that Seeger led at his concerts. With a foreword by Harry Belafonte.

Copies will be available to borrow or buy at the concert.

Suggested donation: $20 (no one turned away for lack of funds)

Advance tickets: <https://www.riseupandsing.org/events/petes-100th-brattleboro>

or contact: 802-490-2052